Saturday Evening Masses

From now until Saturday, August 27th, we are pleased to offer a Mass on Saturday evenings starting at 7:30 p.m. The Saturday evening Mass provides an opportunity to worship at the Shrine at a different time than is normally available. On various occasions during the summer, we will have guest musicians join us for these evening liturgies. We will post the names of the various musicians as we plan them. We hope you will be able to join us for as many of these Masses as possible to enjoy a most uplifting and a spirit-filled experience.

Do you have 4 hours to re-create your life with the Lord?

Retreats are held in the Shrine Kateri Chapel and Visitors Center. All are welcome to come and share in Scripture and enjoy a community spiritual experience. The time is 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. with fellowship, talks, potluck lunch, Mass, prayers, Confession, and prayer for healing. Call Ferne for reservations at the Office. Fr. McGuire will be the Celebrant of the Eucharist. The next date is: August 24, "Catholic Campaign to End the Death Penalty" - Thomas Boland. Come to this Holy Place of the Martyrs and enjoy spirit-filled experience!

Septemberfest and a chance to win!

This September, the Shrine will be having a month long celebration of the 75th Anniversary of our Coliseum Church and the 75th Anniversary of the canonization of the three Jesuit Martyrs. Included in the month will be our 1st Annual Gala and the month will conclude with a celebration Mass on Saturday, September 24th with Bishop Hubbard presiding. In conjunction with all the September events, we will be conducting "Septemberfest". In the Coliseum, at the Visitor Center, and at the Shrine office, you will find forms describing this fundraiser that also affords you the chance for a return. Each ticket has a suggested $10 donation and by entering you will have 30 chances for a cash drawing each day during the month of September. If your ticket is drawn, you not only win the prize of that day, but your ticket will be re-entered for opportunities to win again and again. By entering, you not only help the Shrine but you could also help yourself! Be sure to look for the flyers on your next trip to the Shrine. Good luck and thank you for participating! Please stay posted for more information on our September Celebration.

Join Us for our First Annual Gala

Our Gala which was postponed in May, has been rescheduled for Saturday, September 10, 2005. Tickets are once again on sale after weekend Masses, at the Shrine Office, or at the Visitors Center.

A way to have your Loved One Remembered

A wonderful way is to have one of our new hymnals dedicated and inscribed with their name(s) as a gift from you. A bookplate will be inserted on the inside front cover of a hymnal with their name inscribed on it. One weekend every month, at all Masses, a special prayer will be offered for those persons. For information call the office or Gift Shop.

Prayer to St. Ignatius Loyola Take, O Lord, and receive my entire liberty, my memory, my understanding and my whole will. All that I am and all that I possess You have given me: I surrender it all to You to be disposed of according to Your will. Give me only Your love and Your grace; with these I will be rich enough, and will desire nothing more.

Bridge Between Cultures

Jesuit Father John Paret, a staff member at the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs in Auriesville, and a vice postulator for Blessed Kateri's cause, said she has been remembered mostly for her deep faith while at the same time being surrounded by people who did not share or understand her devotion to Christ. Her refusal to marry was especially troubling to the women and men of her Native community. "In those days, for an Indian girl not to marry was just extraordinary, but she said, 'No, I want to be a bride of Christ,' and nobody could talk her out of it," Father Paret said, "When she wanted to form her own religious community, her spiritual director said it was enough that she made the conversion and that it would be too much for her to form her own community or enter religious life."

this is only a small portion of this article on Kateri.

St. Ignatius Loyola

St. Ignatius, whose Feast Day we celebrate on Sunday, July 31st, was born in the family castle in Guipuzcoa, Spain, the youngest of thirteen children, and was called Inigo. When he was old enough, he became a page, and then a soldier of Spain to fight against the French. A cannon ball and a series of bad operations ended his military career in 1521. While St. Ignatius recovered, he read the lives of the saints, and decided to dedicate himself to becoming a soldier of the Catholic Faith. Soon after, he experienced visions, but a year later suffered a trial of fears and scruples, driving him almost to despair. Out of this experience he wrote his famous "Spiritual Exercises". After traveling and studying in different schools, he finished in Paris, where he received his degree at the age of 43. Many first hated St. Ignatius because of his humble lifestyle. Despite this, he attracted several followers at the university, including St. Francis Xavier, and soon started his order called The Society of Jesus, or Jesuits. There are 38 members of the Society of Jesus who have been declared Blessed, and 38 who have been canonized as saints. Ignatius died at the age of 65.

Weekly Readings

Sunday: 8th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 55:1-3
Psalm 145:8-9, 15-18
Romans 8:35:37-39
Matthew 14:13-21

Know that the experience of pain is something so noble and precious that the Divine Word, who enjoyed the abundant riches of Paradise, yet, because He was not clothed with this ornament of sorrow, came down from Heaven to seek it upon the earth.

— St. Mary Magdalen de' Pazzi

Monday: St. Alphonsus Liguori, Bishop, Doctor of the Church Memorial

Numbers 11:4-15
Psalm 81:12-17
Matthew 14:22-36

A man who fails to love the Mass fails to love Christ. We must make an effort to "live" the Mass with calm and serenity, with devotion and affection. And this is why I have always suspected that those who want the Mass to be over with quickly show, with this insensitive attitude, that they have not yet realized what the sacrifice of the altar means.

— St. Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer

Tuesday: Our Lady of the Angels of Portiuncula

Sirach 24:1-4, 16, 22-24 (Vulgate)
Psalm 34:5, 7, 9-10, 18-19

Galatians 4:3-7

Luke 1:26-33

Go forth in peace, for you have followed the good road. Go forth without fear, for he who created you has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Blessed be you, my God, for having created me.

— St. Clare of Assisi

Wednesday:

Numbers 13:1-2, 25 - 14:1, 26-29, 34-35

Psalm 106:6-7, 13-14, 21-23

Matthew 15:21-28

If we have obtained the grace of God, none shall prevail against us, but we shall be stronger than all who oppose us.

— St. John Chrysostom

Thursday: St. John Mary Vianney, Priest Memorial

Numbers 20:1-13

Psalm 95:1-2, 6-9

Matthew 16:13-23

Stop entertaining those vain fears. Remember it is not feeling which constitutes guilt but the consent to such feelings. Only the free will is capable of good or evil. But when the will sighs under the trial of the tempter and does not will what is presented to it, there is not only no fault but there is virtue.

— Saint Pio of Pietrelcina

Friday: Dedication of the Basilica of Saint Mary Major in Rome Optional Memorial

Revelation 21:1-5

Judith 13:18-19

Luke 11:27-28

Mary was raised to the dignity of Mother of God rather for sinners than for the just, since Jesus Christ declares that he came to call not the just, but sinners.

— St. Anselm

Saturday: The Transfiguration of the Lord Feast

Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14

Psalm 97:1-2, 5-6, 9

2 Peter 1:16-19

Matthew 17:1-9

Accept as blessings the casualties that befall you, assured
