Shrine Gala Appreciation

by Tom Ralph

We celebrated the Shrine season with our Third Annual Gala on Saturday October 6th. It is always gratifying to me that so many people have lent their time and talent to putting on an event such as this. To name all of them would be impossible and I know that if I tried I would inadvertently miss someone. So, to all who helped organize the night's festivities, my sincerest "Thank You" for all of your hard work.

Certain people need to be thanked publicly, however. They are our sponsors whose names you will see listed elsewhere in this edition of the Pilgrim and on our website. Without their contributions, many of the things that occurred last Saturday as well as some of the improvements being made on the Shrine grounds would not have been possible. A great many people also sent smaller donations and we are grateful for their support, as well. And, we especially appreciate all who attended the Gala. Your support and your friendship will always be treasured by us here at the Shrine. If you weren't here, who would have enjoyed the festivities?

Congratulations go out to all who won the great door prizes given away during the evening and a special congratulations goes to Mr. & Mrs. Dennis Domkowski of Amsterdam who were the winners of the grand prize of $1000.00 from the Septemberfest fundraiser.

Special thanks should be given to Jenna Poling and Sam Zimmerman who serenaded us during the cocktail hour, to the Railyard Restaurant, who again provided the wonderful food and to "Mixed Company", the fabulous band who again provided us with great music to listen and dance to. We are already looking forward to next year so we can do it again with your help! I hope to see all of you at next year's Shrine Gala!

"Travel Advisory"

by Fr Peter Murray, SJ

I am happy to announce I'm going to be "on the road" somewhat during our Off-season. There are two somewhat major trips; one in Advent (starting on Dec. 2nd) and one held during Lent of 2008. The one in Advent is to the Holy Land. I'd ask you to pray for that trip, which is arranged by Mr. Chris Cross, KHS, in Schenectady; I believe that trip has been advertised in the Evangelist.

The other sojourn is to Lourdes, France, and Fatima and Burgos. It's an interesting one which starts March 2nd (10 Day Pilgrimage). If you would be interested in going on this March journey, kindly speak to me soon (Fr. Murray at: 518-853-3033 Ext. 222) or just contact Kelly Murphy Travel 518-842-0114. Good luck!

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The Shrine of Our Lady Of Martyrs is a place of natural beauty and spiritual renewal. We are dedicated to the memory of the martyred Jesuits and Blessed Indian maiden who sanctified this hallowed place. Through the example of the Missionaries' courageous faith, which provides the bedrock of our devotions here, we strive to strengthen the faith of all who visit us. We will always be guided by our dedicated predecessors and our loving Father, so that these historic grounds may be a place of peace, love, prayer, and reconciliation, where each and every pilgrim may be welcomed with joy, and may leave here with a soul refreshed and renewed.

Find it at the Shrine: Part 16

We hope it will give you a better understanding of what is here and what its significance is, if you don't already know. It is being prepared by Dorothy Domkowski, a loyal supporter of the Shrine and a member of the Shrine Council.

We hope you will enjoy the series and find it beneficial for your visits to the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs.

Find it at the Shrine

The statue of Kateri Tekakwitha in the front of an altar in the Coliseum is another wooden carving by sculptor Frank Feigeler. Completed in 1958. It originally stood in what is now the Martyrs Memorial Museum.

Find it at the Shrine

Alone in the forest, St. Isaac Jogues sought spiritual consolation by carving the Cross and Holy Name of Jesus on the trees - here memorialized in the beautiful statue on the Shrine grounds. Two Mohawk children learn to bow their heads at the name of Jesus.

Mini-Retreat

Thursday, October 25th a mini-retreat will be offered at the Kateri Chapel on the grounds of the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs from 10 am - 2 pm. This day of prayer includes inspirational talks, uplifting music, celebration of Mass, potluck lunch. All are welcome. For more information about topic, speakers, etc., please call Fr. Bob McGuire at 853-3033 x 233. Please note that starting in November, these mini-retreats will be held on the third Saturday of the month at the Visitor Center.

Shrine Season Finale

Sunday, October 21st is the final day of the 2007 Shrine Season. It is also the celebration of the Feast of the North American Martyrs. There will be a group of Shrine employees, supporters, and friends who will sing as a choir at the 12:30 pm Mass. The final Mass of the Season is at 4 pm.

The Votary & Welcome Room by Tom Ralph

During the last half of 2006, it was determined that the old Gatehouse that sat near the main entrance to the Shrine was unsafe and needed to be replaced. It was razed over the winter and plans were put in place to build a combination Votary and Welcome Room. In the spring of 2007, the new foundation was poured and work began on the new building. Despite many changes requested by me, it is now completed.

What is a Votary you ask? Votary comes from Latin votum, "vow," from the past participle of vovere, "to vow, to devote;" originally a vow, hence a prayer or ardent wish.

Our votary then, gives everyone the opportunity to light a live candle, kneel and offer a prayer or provide an ardent wish in a more private locale to someone whose prayers are needed, or for the remembrance of a loved one, or for one's own needs.

The candles can be obtained during most of the days the Shrine is open, at the Welcome Room, which is attached to the Votary. When a priest is present in the Welcome Room, confessions may also be heard or just stop by for directions or a friendly chat. It's a good place to start your tour of the Shrine campus.

A great deal of thanks goes to Bruce Hilt, Manny Herbert, and Tom Oare who did the bulk of the work bringing this building to life. Many hours of their time went into making this building a haven of peace for our Pilgrims.

When you visit I'm sure you'll agree with us that this is another wonderful addition the Shrine's "Renaissance".

Ingratitude and Gratitude

In both the Old Testament and the New Testaments, God laments over man's ingratitude. "Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth, for the LORD speaks: Sons have I raised and reared, but they have disowned me! An ox knows its owner, and an ass, its master's manger; But Israel does not know, my people have not understood. Ah! Sinful nation, people laden with wickedness, evil race, corrupt children! They have forsaken the LORD, spurned the Holy One of Israel and apostatized" (Isaiah; 1: 2-4). "He came to what was his own, but his own people did not accept him" (John 1:11). Hence, the Word of God invites us to be thankful. At the tomb of Lazarus Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me" (John 11:41). St. Paul advises us: "Give thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father" (Ephesians 5: 20). "And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him" (Colossians 3: 17). Psalms 107:1 advises us: "Give thanks to the LORD who is good, whose love endures forever!" The medieval Christian mystic Meister Eckhart suggests that if the only prayer we say in our lifetime is "Thank You," that would suffice.

Learn to be Thankful to God

Often we are ungrateful to God. Although we receive so much from Him, we often take these things for granted without appreciating His gifts. We allow the negatives of our lives to hide the blessings we have received. For example we may have health problems or financial worries, we may be on bad terms with a relative, a neighbor or co-worker, and we may be upset with a strained relationship with our spouse or with our child's grades or behavior. Besides, we are often thankful only when we compare ourselves with less fortunate people. In times of need, we pray with desperate intensity, but as time passes we forget God. Many of us fail to offer a grace before meals or allot a few minutes of the day for family prayer. God gave us his only Son, but we seldom give Him a word of thanks. It seems that healing the human heart of ingratitude is a greater miracle than healing the skin of leprosy. Often we are ungrateful to our parents and consider them a nuisance, although in the past we were dependent on them for literally everything. "How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child!" Shakespeare wrote in King Lear. Similarly, we owe a great debt of gratitude to our friends, teachers, doctors, pastors--but we often fail to thank them. Hence, in the future, let us be filled with daily thanksgiving to God and to others for the countless gifts we have received. Let us pray: "Please, God--heal my heart of ingratitude."

Healing from our Spiritual Leprosy

Although we may not suffer from physical leprosy, we may suffer from the "spiritual leprosy" of sin. Is there something in our lives that we carry with us that keeps us unclean? Jesus is our Savior who wants to heal us. Since Jesus is not afraid to touch our deepest impurities, let us not hide them from Him. Just as the lepers cried out to Jesus for healing, let us also ask Him to heal us from the spiritual leprosy of sins. The reconciling ministry of the church today requires commitment to a long-term mission to free ourselves and those who would harm us from deep-seated hatreds and prejudice.

Jokes for the Week

Sally was thirty years old and had been married for seven years. She lived in Atlanta and was very active in the parish, but she and her husband Jim had been unsuccessful in starting a family. One day she visited her pastor and informed him that her engineer husband had taken a very good job with a reputable firm in Chicago. Hence they would be moving from Atlanta to Chicago. Her pastor told her that he was going on a pilgrimage to Israel and assured her that he would light a candle at the birth place of Jesus at Bethlehem for their special intention of being blessed with children. Ten years later their former pastor, while on a tour of Chicago, was invited by Sally to visit her family. When the pastor called on Sally he found to his great joy and astonishment that she was blessed with five children. "Congratulations Sally, I am glad to learn that my candle at Bethlehem really worked," he said. After a while, he enquired, "Where is your husband?" "He's gone to Bethlehem," Sally replied, "to thank Jesus and to blow out that darn candle!"

"Thanks, But No Thanks!"

Three men were fishing on a lake one day, when Jesus walked across the water and joined them in the boat. When the three astonished men had settled down enough to speak, the first man asked humbly, "Jesus, I've suffered from back pain ever since I lifted a very heavy long range gun in the Viet Nam war. Could you help me?" "Of course my son," Jesus said. When Jesus touched the man's back, the man felt relief for the first time in years.

The second man, who wore very thick glasses and had a hard time reading and driving, asked if Jesus could do anything about his eyesight. Jesus smiled, removed the man's glasses and tossed them in the lake. When the glasses hit the water, the man's eyesight cleared up and he could see everything distinctly.

Then Jesus turned to the third man. "What can I do for you?" he asked. At this, the man put up his hands defensively and cried: "Don't touch me! I'm on long-term disability."

Many other donations and gifts were received in amounts the donors could afford. We are extremely grateful to those folks as well. It is heart warming to know that our efforts here at the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs are being rewarded by people such as yourself with your support and prayers. We will continue our restoration and upgrading over the next few years during our "Renaissance" to bring the Shrine back to its place of prominence here in the beautiful Mohawk Valley.

God Bless, Tom Ralph

World Mission Sunday

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

October twenty-first is World Mission Sunday. The heart of the Church is missionary. The Good News of Jesus is meant to be shared by all of us. Pope Benedict XVI has written in this year's Mission Sunday message, "the missionary mandate which Christ entrusted to the Apostles truly involves us all." The World Mission Sunday appeal offers us an opportunity to pray for the Missions and to offer a sacrificial gift so that the Gospel may continue to be proclaimed.

The proclamation of the Gospel is accomplished not only in word, but also in service to the human needs of people. Often, in the missions, the word of God is given visible shape and form through the educational, health, and social care apostolates so vital to missionary endeavors. Your gift on World Mission Sunday makes you a cooperator in this mission work.

May the Lord grant wisdom and courage to all missionaries. May the same Lord grant you his grace and peace.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Howard J. Hubbard
Bishop of Albany

Holy Eucharist as the Supreme Act of Thanksgiving

The word "Eucharist" means "thanksgiving." Thanksgiving is the attitude we should adopt in worship. When we celebrate the Holy Mass together, we are thanking God for the great gift of his Son whose sacrifice formed us into the People of God. We thank God for the gift of the Spirit, through which we bring the presence of the Lord to others. Saying thanks together with the parish or shrine community, sharing the food of thanksgiving, the Holy Eucharist, is the least we can do every Sunday in response to God's blessings. Let us thank God for the gift of our own lives, for those who love us and for those whom we love.

Egan-Paret Visitor Center Plaque

In conjunction with the dedication of the Egan-Paret Visitor Center which took place on Saturday, September 22, 2007, we are pleased to provide a unique opportunity for Friends of the Shrine, Pilgrims, and Benefactors, to inscribe the remembrance of a loved one in a most special way. There is a large plaque prominently displayed on the same wall as the portraits of Father Egan and Father Paret.

This plaque is the most visible of all the plaques currently on display on the Shrine grounds! And that is simply because it is in full view upon entering the Visitor Center building, which is located next to the main parking lot, across from the primary entrance to the Shrine.

Unfortunately there are only a limited number of inscriptions that are available to be placed on this plaque of honor. Once they are filled, this drive will be over. But for those lucky enough to have the names of loved ones inscribed, they will be viewed by pilgrims for many, many years to come. And like all Shrine donors and those they choose to have remembered, they will be prayed for as long as the Shrine stands. Inscriptions are available for donations of $300 and placement will be secured at the time payment is received, until all spaces are filled. We hope that you will choose to be a part of this extraordinary commemoration.
